Mike Masuda was born in a Japanese internment camp during World War II. After the war, his family moved to California, where Masuda grew up feeling like an outsider. He was shy and awkward, and he didn't fit in with the other kids. But Masuda found solace in martial arts. He began training in judo and karate, and he quickly discovered that he had a natural talent for the sport. As he progressed in his training, Masuda also began to develop a strong sense of self-confidence and discipline. He realized that martial arts was more than just a way to defend himself; it was a way of life.

Masuda's journey was not without its challenges. He faced discrimination and prejudice from both Japanese and Americans. But he never gave up on his dreams. He continued to train hard, and he eventually became one of the most successful martial artists in the United States. Masuda also went on to become a successful businessman and author. He is now the CEO of his own company, and he has written several books on martial arts and self-improvement.

Autumn Lightning is a powerful and inspiring story about overcoming adversity, finding your passion, and achieving your dreams. Masuda's journey is a reminder that anything is possible if you set your mind to it. If you are looking for a book that will motivate you to reach your full potential, then Autumn Lightning is the perfect book for you.
