As years turn into centuries, the kingdom of Avalor falls into disrepair, its people yearning for the day their beloved princess will return. And so, the legend of Sleeping Beauty is passed down from generation to generation, becoming a beacon of hope in the darkest of times.

One fateful day, a brave and handsome prince named Phillip arrives in Avalor, determined to find the sleeping princess and break the curse that has plagued the kingdom for so long. With his trusty steed and a heart filled with courage, he sets out on a perilous quest that will test his limits and lead him to the princess's hidden tower.

Inside the tower, Phillip discovers Briar Rose lying in a state of suspended animation, her beauty as radiant as the day she was cursed. Intrigued and captivated by her ethereal presence, Phillip leans down and gently kisses her lips.

In that instant, a surge of energy flows through the tower, and the princess's eyes slowly flutter open. The curse is broken, and Briar Rose is finally awakened.

Overjoyed and filled with gratitude, Briar Rose embraces the prince who has saved her. Together, they return to Avalor, where they are greeted as heroes. The kingdom is restored to its former glory, and the people celebrate the end of the long night that has enveloped them.

Awaken Sleeping Beauty Retold is a timeless tale of love, courage, and the power of hope. It is a story that will enchant readers of all ages, transporting them to a world of magic and wonder.
