What is the Divine Comedy?

The Divine Comedy is a poem written by Dante Alighieri in the early 14th century. The poem tells the story of Dante's journey through Hell, Purgatory, and Paradise.

The poem is divided into three parts:

- The Inferno (Hell)
- The Purgatorio (Purgatory)
- The Paradiso (Paradise)

In the Inferno, Dante encounters the souls of those who have been condemned to eternal punishment. In the Purgatorio, he meets the souls of those who are being purified for their sins. In the Paradiso, he meets the souls of those who have been saved.

The Divine Comedy is a complex and challenging poem, but it is also a deeply rewarding one. The poem is full of vivid imagery, profound insights, and philosophical reflections.
