

National Peach Ice Cream Day: A Sweet Celebration of Summer's Favorite Fruit

A History of Peachy Delight

There's no one definitive origin story for peach ice cream, but its roots can be traced back centuries. In ancient China, people enjoyed a frozen treat made with peaches and honey. This dessert later made its way to Europe, where it became a favorite among royalty and wealthy individuals. Peaches were also used to make sorbets, which were popular in the Middle Ages.
