The match will be a rematch of last season's Round of 16 tie, which Barcelona won 4-1 on aggregate. However, much has changed since then. PSG have made some big signings, including Lionel Messi, Sergio Ramos, and Gianluigi Donnarumma. Barcelona, meanwhile, have been in a state of transition under new manager Xavi Hernandez.

Both teams will be desperate to win this match. PSG will be looking to avenge last season's defeat and prove that they are one of the favorites to win the Champions League this season. Barcelona, meanwhile, will be looking to show that they are back among the elite clubs in Europe.

The match is sure to be a close and exciting affair. Both teams have world-class players and will be looking to play attacking football. Fans can expect to see plenty of goals and drama when these two giants of European football collide.

Prediction

This is a match that could go either way. Both teams have world-class players and will be looking to play attacking football. However, PSG will be slight favorites due to their home advantage and the fact that they have more experience in the Champions League.

I predict that PSG will win the match 2-1. Messi will score the opening goal for PSG, and Mbappé will add a second in the second half. Barcelona will pull a goal back late on, but it will not be enough to prevent PSG from winning the match.

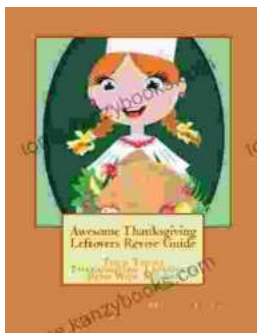

The match between Paris Saint-Germain and FC Barcelona is sure to be a memorable one. Both teams have world-class players and will be looking to play attacking football. Fans can expect to see plenty of goals and drama when these two giants of European football collide.
