A Christmas Eve Like No Other

As the snow blankets the town, the Bailey School kids gather for a festive Christmas Eve party. But their joy is short-lived when their beloved Santa Claus goes missing! Mrs. Jeepers and her students are determined to find him. Their quest leads them on an extraordinary adventure filled with talking animals, magical creatures, and a hilarious encounter with the Easter Bunny.

Unleash the Imagination

"Santa Claus Doesn't Mop Floors" is a testament to the power of childhood imagination. Author Debbie Dadey has crafted a story that encourages readers to believe in the impossible and embrace the whimsical. With each encounter, the Bailey School kids learn valuable lessons about courage, friendship, and the true meaning of Christmas.

Characters to Treasure

The Bailey School kids are a diverse and endearing group. There's Howie, the practical joker; Melody, the artist with a vivid imagination; and Lisa, the science whiz. Their unique personalities and perspectives add depth to the story, making them characters that readers can relate to and root for.

A Festive Setting

The story takes place on Christmas Eve, and Dadey captures the festive atmosphere perfectly. From the twinkling lights and Christmas carols to the smell of freshly baked gingerbread, the setting immerses readers in the magic of the season.

Lessons of Friendship and Courage

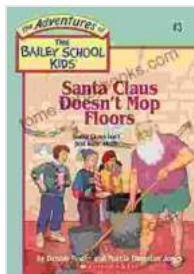

Through their adventure, the Bailey School kids learn the importance of teamwork, resilience, and sticking together in the face of challenges. They discover that even the smallest of them can make a difference.
