Prepare yourself for a literary journey that will tantalize your taste buds and transport you to a world of opulence and desire. "The King and the Chocolate Bath" is a captivating historical novel that unveils the untold story of King Louis XV and his extraordinary obsession with chocolate.

Step into the lavish court of Versailles, where extravagance reigns supreme. King Louis XV, a man known for his hedonistic pursuits, harbors a secret passion: chocolate. His obsession knows no bounds, driving him to seek out the finest chocolate from every corner of his kingdom and beyond.

As the king's desire intensifies, so too does the intrigue that surrounds him. Secret affairs, political machinations, and the whispers of rebellion weave their way through the opulent halls of the palace. Amidst the swirling rumors and hidden agendas, a young woman named Jeanne-Antoinette Poisson emerges.

Jeanne, with her wit and undeniable charm, captures the king's heart. As their love affair blossoms, Jeanne becomes privy to the king's deepest desires, including his unyielding passion for chocolate. Together, they embark on a clandestine quest to fulfill the king's most extraordinary cravings.

The pursuit of the perfect chocolate bath leads the king and his entourage on a journey filled with unexpected encounters, daring adventures, and even a touch of danger. Along the way, they encounter eccentric chocolatiers, secretive alchemists, and a cast of characters as vibrant and unforgettable as the chocolate itself.
