"Hanukkah Moon" takes us on a magical journey through the eight nights of Hanukkah, where the traditions and customs of the holiday come alive. We follow the story of a young girl named Luna and her family as they light the menorah, play dreidel, and share delicious Hanukkah treats. Da Costa's writing is both lyrical and engaging, capturing the essence of this special time of year and making it accessible to children of all backgrounds.

Vibrant Illustrations Illuminate the Story

Complementing the enchanting story are the vibrant and expressive illustrations by Juana Martinez-Neal. Each page is a visual feast, depicting the beauty and joy of Hanukkah celebrations. From the cozy glow of the menorah to the lively games of dreidel, Martinez-Neal's artwork brings the story to life, creating a magical and immersive experience for readers.

Profound Themes for Families and Educators

Beyond the captivating story and stunning illustrations, "Hanukkah Moon" also explores profound themes that resonate with families and educators alike. The book celebrates the importance of tradition, family, and the indomitable spirit of hope. Luna and her family face challenges and obstacles throughout the story, but they never lose sight of the true meaning of Hanukkah: to remember the miracle of light and to share its blessings with others.

"Hanukkah Moon" is not only a delightful holiday read but also a valuable resource for educators who wish to teach children about the traditions and significance of Hanukkah. The book provides a gentle to Jewish culture and history, helping children to appreciate the diversity that exists within our world.
